School Vacation Week

February 2018 - Open Every Day

Open Sat., Feb. 17 through Sun., Feb. 25, 10 am - 4 pm

We have expanded winter hours this week.

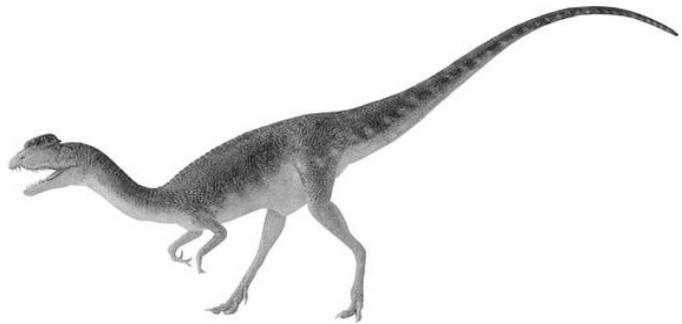

Investigation Stations:

Stop by the welcome desk for investigation stations every day 10am to 4pm! Topics may include dinosaurs, mammals, and birds.

Sat., Feb. 17, 1-4 pm

Opening Event: Reading the Rocky Book of the Past

Dinosaur Footprints in the Connecticut River Valley. This opening event includes a variety of learning stations for all generations to enjoy: “meet” Orra White Hitchcock and try your hand at botanical drawing and painting; make an imitation fossil out of clay; see and learn about real fossils; make your own small collection of gems and shells; or relax with dinosaur books and puzzles and enjoy dino-themed refreshments. Sponsored in part by Massachusetts Cultural Council, the National Endowment for the Humanities, the Institute of Museum and Library Services, and the members and donors of the Pocumtuck Valley Memorial Association. Learning exhibit open Feb. 17—April 1.

Tues. Feb. 20, 1-2 pm Brainy Birds

This program explores what may be the smartest birds in the world: the corvids! Crows, jays and ravens are all found in the northeast and belong to this group of master problem solvers. We’ll discuss who’s who in the corvid clan and take a look at what they can do. Audience participation includes “Are you smarter than a crow?” and an up-close look at Onyx our education raven. Free! Sponsored by CFCE playgroup. Call 413-863-3221 for more information. For children of all ages and their grown-ups.

Story Hours: Fri., Feb. 23, 10:30 am: Coyotes; Sat. Feb 24, 10:30 am: Dinosaurs
